

CITY OF COOPER CITY
SENIOR ADVISORY BOARD
MINUTES OF MEETING
DECEMBER 18, 2012

CALL TO ORDER: Gail Jaffee, Chairwoman, at 6:30 p.m.

ROLL CALL: present Gail Jaffee, Maxine Nicely, Elizabeth Villasenor, Susan Fliedner, Jean Steinfeld,

Dave Brundage. Absent: Henry Harris, Stan Neumann, Teri Sullivan, Sharon Taylor.

GUEST INTRODUCTIONS: Robert Kirschbaum – Re-engage for Good. Robert has been hired by City to run grant program to bring boomers (born '46 – '64) back into a state of involvement as volunteers but in a meaningful way. Will speak at January 15, 2013 meeting. Suggestion: have someone to talk about finances, mortgages, investing, foreclosures.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES: minutes approved with correction: call to order should read 6:30 p.m.

OLD BUSINESS:

1. When Commissioner's term expires, our term expires. When Commissioner is re-elected, we need to be re-appointed.
2. We make recommendations, not decisions.
3. Chain of command: Lynda Good, Commissioners, Mayor
4. We are not a grievance committee.
5. Light-Up Cooper City: successful meetings with people at table, great feedback, could have sign on front of table
6. S.A.F.E. self-defense course – 18 signed up at December luncheon. Free to CC residents. Linda Victor, Lynda Good, Patti Williams will coordinate date.

NEW BUSINESS:

Suggestions: Health Fairs for Elderly – care assistance program through Lisa's Place. Gail will ask about health fairs in Cooper City. Memorial has bus that goes around with health testing. Cook-off, dietician speaking, senior raised garden bed for veggies suggested. All suggestions go up chain of command.

MEMBERS CONCERNS: none

Meeting adjourned 7:26 p.m. motioned and seconded.

Next meeting January 15, 2013

