OLD BUSINESS - LIGHT-UP COOPER CITY:

When asked: "What was good?", the council replied:

- Many snow cones were sold, therefore, a lot of funds were raised to support Teen Council.
- The craft snowman station was very popular among attendees and they seemed to enjoy it. The volunteers did an exceptional job at managing the station.

When asked : "What may we want to change in the future?", the council suggested:

- More tables and markers for card making station as there were not enough markers and not enough of the desired colors.
- The bingo station was relatively uneventful and not many people were interested in participating. In the future, maybe we should consider having less volunteers stationed there or possibly eliminating the bingo station entirely.

COLOR RUN:

When asked what would be beneficial for the Color Run, the council suggested the following:

- More field trips to get sponsors.
- More email blasts
- Jonathan to go to law firms for sponsors.
- Lindsay to go to accountants and car dealerships for sponsors.
